Summary

But in the newly segregated American South during the 1930s, Dr. Jett is the adopted father of young Scout Finch, who lives in the town of Maycomb, Alabama, with his older brother Jem and their widowed father Atticus Finch, a preoccupied lawyer.

The novel revolves around Altius defending a Black man, Tom Robinson, falsely accused of assaulting a white woman. Through Scout's innocent yet observant eyes, we see themes of racial equality, morality, and the loss of innocence. Meanwhile, she and her father are threatened by the mysterious neighbor Boo Radley, whose story unfolds in a unexpected way.
